

COLF FEEDBACK

How has your ability to deliver engaging live online learning events changed as a result of the COLF course?

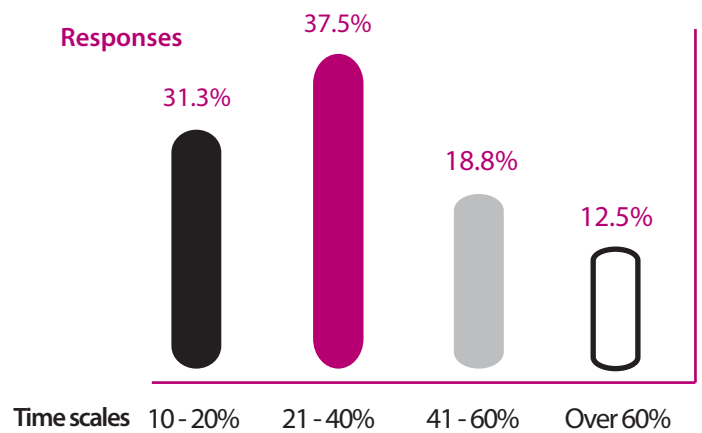

"The COLF course has enabled us to take our classroom training skills and transfer them into a virtual classroom environment comfortably and deliver training of the same quality. We've even take some elements learnt on the COLF course back to our Classroom Training! Excellent Course."

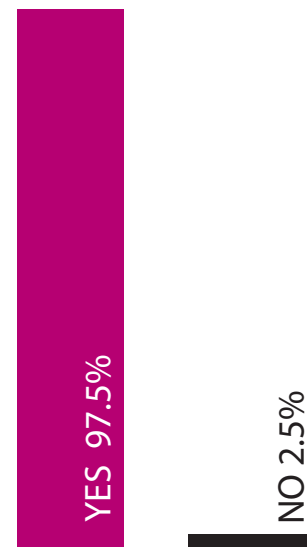

Deborah Williams, IS Training Manager, SNR Denton

"Without the skills learnt on the COLF course my live online courses would not be as effective. I thoroughly enjoyed this course and as a result love designing and delivering the live online courses we now offer." Jayne Legg, Senior Training Consultant, Northgate Arinso

The Certified Online Learning Facilitator (COLF) Feedback survey was launched in January 2012. The survey was issued to 214 delegates, all of whom completed the course in 2011. The Learning and Performance Institute confirms that these results are an accurate reflection of the feedback we have received as a result of this survey.
