

FELLOWS' SYMPOSIUM 5TH DECEMBER THE BREWERY LONDON

IN ASSOCIATION WITH

The Fellows' Symposium is an invitation only event hosted by The Learning and Performance Institute.

2:00pm Registration

2:30pm The current L&D landscape - Institute Chairman Donald H Taylor

3:00pm The future for L&D – Professor Chris Bones

In this session, Chris Bones prepares us for 2012 in his own provocative, interactive style. As former head of L&D for Cadbury's Schweppes and current Professor of Creativity and Leadership, Manchester Business School, Chris is in a unique position to draw on both personal experiences and research to suggest some of the ways in which Learning and Development (L&D) is getting it right, where it's getting it wrong, and how to get it back on track.

3:45pm Break

4:15pm Panel Debate – preparing for 2012

2011 has seen the L&D landscape shift: budgets, technologies and our understanding of the best ways for people to learn at work have all altered. These changes offer both a challenge and an opportunity and there is no doubt that to succeed in 2012, L&D will need to be different. In discussion and debate with each other and with the audience, our panel – with over a century of L&D experience between them – will lead the way in planning how to make 2012 a great year for L&D.
